

For more than a decade, Barack Obama has said “yes” to women’s rights, while John McCain has consistently said “no” — NO to pay equity, NO to contraceptive access and reproductive rights, NO to appointing Supreme Court judges who will uphold women’s rights and civil rights, NO to funding shelters and other anti-violence programs, and NO to supporting working moms and dads with policies that support work/life balance.

- On pay equity. Sen. Obama is a co-sponsor of the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act and the Paycheck Fairness Act, legislation to end wage discrimination against women.
- On reproductive rights. Sen. Obama is a co-sponsor of the Prevention First Act, to strengthen access to contraception and reproductive health care, and prevent unwanted pregnancies. He strongly supports Roe v. Wade and will oppose any efforts to overturn it.
- On violence against women. Sen. Obama supports the continued reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act — of which Sen. Joe Biden is the chief sponsor — as well as the Security and Financial Empowerment (SAFE) Act, which is legislation to provide legal, medical and financial support to victims of domestic violence.
- On the Supreme Court. Sen. Obama opposed the nominations of George Bush’s extreme right-wing nominees to the Supreme Court, who have consistently ruled against women’s rights.

■ WWW.NOWPACS.ORG ■

For more than a decade, Barack Obama has said “yes” to women’s rights, while John McCain has consistently said “no” — NO to pay equity, NO to contraceptive access and reproductive rights, NO to appointing Supreme Court judges who will uphold women’s rights and civil rights, NO to funding shelters and other anti-violence programs, and NO to supporting working moms and dads with policies that support work/life balance.

- On pay equity. Sen. Obama is a co-sponsor of the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act and the Paycheck Fairness Act, legislation to end wage discrimination against women.
- On reproductive rights. Sen. Obama is a co-sponsor of the Prevention First Act, to strengthen access to contraception and reproductive health care, and prevent unwanted pregnancies. He strongly supports Roe v. Wade and will oppose any efforts to overturn it.
- On violence against women. Sen. Obama supports the continued reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act — of which Sen. Joe Biden is the chief sponsor — as well as the Security and Financial Empowerment (SAFE) Act, which is legislation to provide legal, medical and financial support to victims of domestic violence.
- On the Supreme Court. Sen. Obama opposed the nominations of George Bush’s extreme right-wing nominees to the Supreme Court, who have consistently ruled against women’s rights.

■ WWW.NOWPACS.ORG ■

For more than a decade, Barack Obama has said “yes” to women’s rights, while John McCain has consistently said “no” — NO to pay equity, NO to contraceptive access and reproductive rights, NO to appointing Supreme Court judges who will uphold women’s rights and civil rights, NO to funding shelters and other anti-violence programs, and NO to supporting working moms and dads with policies that support work/life balance.

- On pay equity. Sen. Obama is a co-sponsor of the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act and the Paycheck Fairness Act, legislation to end wage discrimination against women.
- On reproductive rights. Sen. Obama is a co-sponsor of the Prevention First Act, to strengthen access to contraception and reproductive health care, and prevent unwanted pregnancies. He strongly supports Roe v. Wade and will oppose any efforts to overturn it.
- On violence against women. Sen. Obama supports the continued reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act — of which Sen. Joe Biden is the chief sponsor — as well as the Security and Financial Empowerment (SAFE) Act, which is legislation to provide legal, medical and financial support to victims of domestic violence.
- On the Supreme Court. Sen. Obama opposed the nominations of George Bush’s extreme right-wing nominees to the Supreme Court, who have consistently ruled against women’s rights.

■ WWW.NOWPACS.ORG ■

For more than a decade, Barack Obama has said “yes” to women’s rights, while John McCain has consistently said “no” — NO to pay equity, NO to contraceptive access and reproductive rights, NO to appointing Supreme Court judges who will uphold women’s rights and civil rights, NO to funding shelters and other anti-violence programs, and NO to supporting working moms and dads with policies that support work/life balance.

- On pay equity. Sen. Obama is a co-sponsor of the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act and the Paycheck Fairness Act, legislation to end wage discrimination against women.
- On reproductive rights. Sen. Obama is a co-sponsor of the Prevention First Act, to strengthen access to contraception and reproductive health care, and prevent unwanted pregnancies. He strongly supports Roe v. Wade and will oppose any efforts to overturn it.
- On violence against women. Sen. Obama supports the continued reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act — of which Sen. Joe Biden is the chief sponsor — as well as the Security and Financial Empowerment (SAFE) Act, which is legislation to provide legal, medical and financial support to victims of domestic violence.
- On the Supreme Court. Sen. Obama opposed the nominations of George Bush’s extreme right-wing nominees to the Supreme Court, who have consistently ruled against women’s rights.

■ WWW.NOWPACS.ORG ■

Your daughter deserves opportunity

Your mother deserves justice

Your sister deserves empowerment

Your grandmother deserves respect

Your partner deserves privacy

Your best friend deserves autonomy

You deserve freedom

On Nov. 4 vote Obama-Biden for equality for all

Paid for by NOW PAC. The National Organization for Women Political Action Committee is an independent, feminist political force. NOW PAC endorses candidates—women and men of any political affiliation—who take uncompromising stands on women's rights issues. Visit www.nowpacs.org for more info.

Your daughter deserves opportunity

Your mother deserves justice

Your sister deserves empowerment

Your grandmother deserves respect

Your partner deserves privacy

Your best friend deserves autonomy

You deserve freedom

On Nov. 4 vote Obama-Biden for equality for all

Paid for by NOW PAC. The National Organization for Women Political Action Committee is an independent, feminist political force. NOW PAC endorses candidates—women and men of any political affiliation—who take uncompromising stands on women's rights issues. Visit www.nowpacs.org for more info.

Your daughter deserves opportunity

Your mother deserves justice

Your sister deserves empowerment

Your grandmother deserves respect

Your partner deserves privacy

Your best friend deserves autonomy

You deserve freedom

On Nov. 4 vote Obama-Biden for equality for all

Paid for by NOW PAC. The National Organization for Women Political Action Committee is an independent, feminist political force. NOW PAC endorses candidates—women and men of any political affiliation—who take uncompromising stands on women's rights issues. Visit www.nowpacs.org for more info.

Your daughter deserves opportunity

Your mother deserves justice

Your sister deserves empowerment

Your grandmother deserves respect

Your partner deserves privacy

Your best friend deserves autonomy

You deserve freedom

On Nov. 4 vote Obama-Biden for equality for all

Paid for by NOW PAC. The National Organization for Women Political Action Committee is an independent, feminist political force. NOW PAC endorses candidates—women and men of any political affiliation—who take uncompromising stands on women's rights issues. Visit www.nowpacs.org for more info.

Photos by Bard Martin

Photos by Bard Martin

Photos by Bard Martin

Photos by Bard Martin